

Payment Policy:

Payment is due in full before any package is released or delivered. Accepted payment methods will be listed on our website and official social media pages. Customers are responsible for all applicable shipping charges, customs duties, taxes, storage fee and any additional service charges. Packages will not be released until all outstanding balances have been paid. Prestige Kargo JA reserves the right to refuse future services to customers with repeat late payments or unpaid balances.